Entry Title: What do I Say?

What do I Say?

My breath runs out
I have nothing to say
The leaves rustle
The wind whispers for me to say something
But what do I say?
The water roars
Telling me to say something
But what do I say?
I gasp for breath
I gasp for my voice back
How do I show my voice if it's not there?
The grass waves a welcome
The wind whispers once again
The water roars once again
But what do I say?
Whatever I say, I have to show my voice if I want to tame it
So I say it
And my heart beats
I show my voice always
And I enjoy it
Even if I don't always say something perfectly.
